

Announcement

Paul-Eric Poitras, co-owner of NAI Commercial in Montreal has been elected to the NAI Global Members Leadership Board. Paul-Eric's three year team begins in February 2010.

His election to the Leadership Board will ensure a continued strong voice for the Canadian Members within the NAI Network.

We believe that active participation by all Member firms is key to our future success. Paul-Eric's participation and engagement with the NAI Global Network has helped him grow his Montreal business and his election to the Board is a reflection of how highly he is thought of throughout NAI. He is not only one of our top producing brokers but is one of the most engaged leaders in our organization.

On behalf of the member firms of NAI Commercial I would like to congratulate Paul-Eric on this next phase of his growth as a real estate professional. Congratulations, partner!
